State Board of Higher Education

The University of North Dakota is a part of the North Dakota University System consisting of ten publicly supported colleges and universities and one branch campus. The State Board of Higher Education is constitutionally responsible for the management of the University and is final authority in all matters affecting the University, exercising jurisdiction over its financial, educational, and other policies, and its relations with the state and federal governments. Certain administrative responsibilities of the Board have been delegated to the Chancellor of the North Dakota University System. The Board entrusts the execution of its plans and policies, together with the internal governance and administration of the University, to the President and the faculty and such other officers as it may select. Board members are appointed for four-year terms.
