

Minor in Linguistics

---

Emphasizing both cognitive understanding and analytical skills, the undergraduate minor in Linguistics provides an introduction to the scientific study of language, as a supplement to a student's primary academic concentration. Its purpose is to provide a foundation for a graduate degree or other further education in linguistics or related fields, and to prepare students for informed decision-making about language-related issues in their daily lives.

The total requirement for the minor is 19-20 credits, including the following:

Code	Title	Credits
Required Core Courses
ENGL 209	Introduction to Linguistics	3
ENGL 309	Modern Grammar	3
LANG 333	Introduction to Sociolinguistics	3
ENGL 442	History of the English Language	3
And Either
Two 101/102/201/202 world language courses		8
Or
One 101/102/201/202 world language course		4
and
ENGL 370	Language and Culture	3
or CSD 223	Phonetics

Note: Of the English courses in the linguistics minor, only English 209 may also count towards the English major. The remaining English courses will not count for the major if being applied to the linguistics minor.