The Department of Social Work offers a Bachelor of Science in Social Work (BSSW) and a Master of Social Work (MSW) degree. Both degrees offer Campus and Distance options. Each option requires a separate admission application. BSSW Campus program admissions are each semester, and BSSW Distance program admissions are Fall only with a June 15 deadline.

The mission of the Department of Social Work is to advance knowledge and learning and to prepare competent, responsive and ethical social workers who empower vulnerable populations, promote social justice, and are committed to serving diverse populations.

The mission of the University of North Dakota Bachelor of Science in Social Work Program provides students with knowledge, values and skills for generalist social work, with an emphasis on culturally responsive practice in rural communities. The program was first accredited by the Council on Social Work Education in 1974. The goals of the program are to:

1. Build upon students' liberal arts foundation to provide the knowledge, values and skills necessary for competent social work generalist practice.
2. Prepare students for culturally responsive practice in rural communities.
3. Prepare students for service and leadership within the community and the social work profession.
4. Prepare students for continued professional development opportunities.

Social work courses were first offered at the University of North Dakota in 1905; the social work program was formally established in 1939. The Commission on Accreditation (2012) states, "The purpose of the social work profession is to promote human and community wellbeing. Guided by a person and environment construct, a global perspective, respect for human diversity, and knowledge based on scientific inquiry, social work's purpose is actualized through its quest for social and economic justice, the prevention of conditions that limit human rights, the elimination of poverty, and the enhancement of the quality of life for all persons.

Students interested in declaring social work as a major notify the BSSW Program Director who will assign an advisor. Students will meet with their assigned advisor, who will work with the student throughout the remainder of their career at UND.

Addiction Counselor Training Program

The Department of Social Work is designated as an Addiction Counselor Training Program by the North Dakota Board of Addiction Counseling Examiners. Students who successfully complete the course of study, the clinical training requirements and the licensure examination are eligible for licensing as addiction counselors in the State of North Dakota.

Students must apply for admittance into a board approved Clinical Training Program. Applications are accepted once per year on February 1, and if admitted to this competitive program, the 1,400-hour practicum begins the following Fall semester.

Students are admitted to the addiction counselor training on two levels. The first level includes social work majors (students from related disciplines may also apply) who also complete the minor in Chemical Dependency (required courses for licensing in addiction counseling, or their equivalent) and the nine-month/1,400 hour practicum in a certified addiction facility. Students must meet all requirements for a social work major in addition to the minor requirements and the addiction practicum requirement. This generally involves a five-year program of study.

The second level relates to graduate students in Counseling who must meet the required graduate program of study, the required addiction courses, and the nine-month practicum. For more complete details, please contact the Department of Social Work or the Department of Counseling Psychology and Community Services.
