Cherry, Gunther, Matic, Murry, Ray, Reissig, and Weatherly (Chair)

The Department of Theatre Arts at the University of North Dakota strives to achieve educational theatre of the highest quality by maintaining professional standards and practice through teaching, creative activity/research, and service.

The Department of Theatre Arts fulfills the mission through the following objectives:

1. To provide a quality liberal arts foundation for all theatre majors.
2. To provide experiences that will engender an appreciation and understanding of theatre and how it enriches our life.
3. To provide academic training and practical experience appropriate for students who wish to pursue careers in theatre or who wish to continue their studies at an advanced professional or graduate program.
4. To serve as a cultural resource for the university community and the general public.

The Department of Theatre Arts aims to fulfill the objectives through the following goals:

1. All theatre majors will successfully complete the University Essential Studies courses and demonstrate significant levels of competency through completion of a Senior Project.
2. Majors and non-majors will improve creative thinking skills through theatre courses within the essential studies curriculum.
3. Majors will achieve competency in at least one of the following areas: acting, musical theatre, design and technology, or general studies in theatre.
4. The Department of Theatre will serve the university, region, and state through quality performance of a rich variety of theatre styles.

The University of North Dakota is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre (NAST). The curriculum of the Department of Theatre Arts provides students with opportunities to pursue a Bachelor of Fine Arts and a Bachelor of Arts. All undergraduate theatre majors share a common set of core courses. The Bachelor of Arts offers a well-rounded curriculum for theatre majors. The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Musical Theatre is a pre-professional degree that requires a high level of proficiency in theatrical performance and is an appropriate preparation for students who desire professional careers in musical theatre. The Department offers a minor in Theatre and a minor in Dance.

The Department of Theatre Arts integrates the classroom curriculum with applied, experiential learning in production. Our production season offers a rich variety of styles and genres, including musicals. Student directors and designers may apply to stage a production in the Burtness Lab Theatre.

Productions are staged in the Burtness Theatre, which boasts a fully-equipped, 365 seat, proscenium-stage and Blackbox (Lab) Theatre.

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Musical Theatre

The Bachelor of Fine Arts program is offered to students with marked abilities who desire an intensive undergraduate concentration in Theatre Arts, in preparation for either a career in professional theatre, or graduate study leading to the MFA, or both. Candidates accepted for the program will be expected to maintain a high standard of excellence and to demonstrate significant artistic growth.

Candidates seeking admission to the BFA in Musical Theatre audition as incoming freshmen or transfer students. Each student auditioning will be required to submit a resume and the BFA in Musical Theatre Program Application found on the Theatre website along with a headshot if available. Each freshman and transfer student auditioning and seeking scholarship monies will be required to complete the Freshman Scholarship Form found on the Theatre website. All applications must be submitted to the Theatre department office a week prior to auditioning. In order to receive scholarship monies, each student must be a major in the Theatre Arts department.

For information regarding auditioning, please contact the head of the Musical Theatre program.

All applying for acceptance into the BFA in Musical Theatre program must demonstrate a satisfactory competence in scholarship, vocal ability, acting, and theatre knowledge. In order to demonstrate competence in scholarship, each student applying to the program must hold a cumulative 2.5 GPA. In order to demonstrate competence in Theatre knowledge, students must submit a theatrical resume listing his/her production work. In order to demonstrate competence in vocal ability and acting, each student will complete an audition for the program. Faculty members in Theatre Arts in the programs of acting, dance, and musical theatre will be responsible for determining acceptance into the program.
