

Admissions Policies and Procedures

The University Admissions Office may reserve the right to deny an applicant or revoke an admissions decision regardless of enrollment status if additional information, such as falsifying a transcript, incorrectly answering safety and security questions, or identifying other information that may have misled the admissions decision.

- Application for Admission to School of Graduate Studies (<https://catalog.und.edu/graduateacademicinformation/admission/application/>)
- Minimum General School of Graduate Studies Admission Requirements (<https://catalog.und.edu/graduateacademicinformation/admission/minimumadmissionrequirements/>)
- Categories of Admission (<https://catalog.und.edu/graduateacademicinformation/admission/categoriesofadmission/>)
- Eligibility for Faculty to Pursue Graduate Degree (<https://catalog.und.edu/graduateacademicinformation/admission/facultygraddegree/>)
- Eligibility to Work for an Advanced Degree (<https://catalog.und.edu/graduateacademicinformation/admission/workadvanceddegree/>)
- Matriculation (<https://catalog.und.edu/graduateacademicinformation/admission/matriculation/>)