

Master of Arts in Counseling

On-Campus M.A. Counseling Program

Admission Requirements

On-Campus M.A. Counseling Program

The on-campus Master of Arts in Counseling Program is an in-person experience where students must complete 60 credits, at the UND campus, in order to complete the degree. There are four emphasis areas in the online Program: Addictions, Child and Adolescent Counseling, Community Mental Health, Rehabilitation. Students will select one emphasis area to be the focus of their program of study.

The applicant must meet the School of Graduate Studies' current minimum general admission requirements as published in the graduate catalog.

1. A four-year bachelor's degree from a recognized college or university (or be in a combined program).
2. Twenty semester credits of coursework in the behavioral sciences at the undergraduate level, which must include theories of personality, abnormal psychology, developmental psychology, and statistics. Additional courses in psychology and sociology may be applied toward this prerequisite. Courses in other social science disciplines where the focus is on the description or explanation of individual or group behavior may be accepted in fulfillment of this prerequisite at the discretion of the department. Applicants must submit this information on the "Supplemental Application Form and Undergraduate Coursework Summary."
3. A cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 2.75 for all undergraduate work or a GPA of at least 3.0 for the junior and senior years of undergraduate work (based on A= 4.00).
4. Favorable recommendations and the admission committee's perception of the "best fit" based on the applicant's personal statement.
5. Satisfy the School of Graduate Studies' English Language Proficiency requirements as published in the graduate catalog.

Combined Admission Requirements

This program allows students to designate two three-credit graduate courses to count for both degrees. These courses would be COUN 514 Rehabilitation Counseling: Assessment and Evaluation and COUN 519 Career Counseling.

In addition to the admission requirements for the Counseling Master's program, a completed application must include the following:

1. A plan of study must be filed which demonstrates when course requirements will be taken to meet the requirements or the major or minor in Rehabilitation and Human Services and the MA in Counseling is required as part of the application process to this Combined Degree program.

Individuals who are obtaining the BS degree in RHS are not required to complete RHS 997 - Internship in Rehabilitation, but are required to complete Coun 588 - Rehabilitation Counseling Internship. With this exception, all other requirements of the RHS major or minor and the Coun MA degree must be met.

2. Code	Title	Credits
	Part I - Essential Studies Requirements
	Part II - College of EHD Requirements
	Part III - Core Curriculum for RHS Majors (except RHS 497)
	Part IV - Extra-Departmental Requirements for RHS Majors
	Part V - One 10-credit Concentration for RHS Majors
	For RHS Minors - 15 Credits of Required Courses and 5 Credits of Listed Electives

3. Minimum GPA of 3.0 in all undergraduate work.
4. Written statement of interest in Rehabilitation Counseling as a profession.
