

Specialization in International/ Intercultural Communication

Undergraduate students in the Communication Program at UND may choose to acquire an International/Intercultural Communication specialization.

In order to achieve this written designation on their undergraduate transcript, students in Communication must earn the following additional credits:

Code	Title	Credits
Level IV Foreign Language Proficiency
LANG 101	First Year Foreign Language I	4
LANG 102	First Year Foreign Language II	4
LANG 201	Second Year Foreign Language I	4
LANG 202	Second Year Foreign Language II	4
Study Abroad Experience
Choose one of the following:
LANG 318	Individual Arranged Study Abroad	1-12
LANG 319	University Sponsored Study Abroad	1-12
Complete the Following Communication Courses
COMM 402	Intercultural/International Communication	3
COMM 310	Media and Diversity	3
COMM 497	Internship	1-3

Scholarship funding will be made available by the Communication Program on a competitive basis for students in this track, to assist with study abroad expenses.